

On Thu, Sep 2, 2021 at 9:26 AM Carolyn Greathouse <carolyng608@gmail.com> wrote:

Dear Members of the FOIA Council,

As a resident of Virginia I have interest in public access to police disciplinary records. The public has a right to see that police are accountable for their actions. This will help build public trust. I would hope that police would also be in support of the public having access to both substantiated and unsubstantiated allegations.

Please support this important reform. Trust between the public and police is extremely important.

Sincerely,
Carolyn Greathouse